

Voters Who Didn't Count

An estimated twenty million voting-age adults don't possess valid government-issued photo identification, with an additional five million carrying cards with incorrect name or out-of-state address noted. These individuals are unable to participate come election day.

Fifteen states enforce voter ID laws: Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, and Wisconsin. Voter engagement trends point downwards in those places. Frustrations related to long lines, complex ballots, and denied access to voting booths are cited as factors.
