

Manufacturing Jobs in America

Manufacturing employment is shifting as automatization takes over even those factories slowest to embrace new technology. Enhanced productivity standards have pushed companies to improve their process or face extinction. Still, there are jobs for human workers and the influx of new plants is a positive indicator for our economic health and prosperity in communities nationwide, as proven in China and other regions where millions are gainfully employed despite management's early adoption of the cutting edge in robotics.

JOB GROWTH IN MANUFACTURING

texas (18k)

source: u.s. department of labor (2019)

california (12k)

arizona (8k)

florida (7k)

tennessee (6k)

oregon (6k)

FUTURITY

from a real news source

#NotUs for Civic Literacy
a for profit  enterprise